Client Problem Resolution Guide

What is the Problem Resolution Process?

As a client of Lassen County Behavioral Health (LCBH), you have the right to let us know if you are unhappy with any matter at LCBH.

For most problems, you may file a grievance.

If the problem involves an Adverse Benefit Determination (ABD), you have the right to file an appeal.

An ABD occurs in the following situations:

- We deny or limit a requested service through our service authorization process, including the type or level of service;
- We reduce, suspend, or terminate a service that we previously authorized;
- We deny all or part of payment for a service;
- We fail to provide services to you in a timely manner;

- We fail to act within the time frames for deciding about standard grievances, standard appeals, or expedited appeals; or
- We deny your request to dispute a financial liability, including cost sharing, copayments, premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance.

If you are unhappy with one of the ABDs above, you may appeal the decision through either an appeal or an expedited appeal. If you are unhappy with something other than one of the ABDs listed above, you may file a grievance.

Grievance Process

- You can file a grievance at any time.
- You have the right to file a grievance either orally or in writing.
- If you want, you can have someone call or write the grievance for you.
- We will write to you to let you know that we received your grievance.

- We will review your grievance.
- In most cases, we will make our decision within 60 calendar days after we received your grievance.
- We will write to you to let you know our decision.
- The grievance process may last longer than 60 calendar days if you request an extension.
- The grievance process may last longer than 60 calendar days if we decide that we need more information.
 - This extension will be in your best interest.
 - This extension lasts up to 14 calendar days.
 - We will let you know if we extend the process.

Appeal Process (regarding ABDs)

You can file an appeal when LCBH has made an Adverse Benefit Determination (ABD) that you do not agree with.

- You must file an appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of the ABD that you want to appeal.
- You can file an appeal either orally or in writing.
 - If you request an appeal orally, you will need to give us a signed written appeal after you orally tell us.
- You may authorize another person, including your provider, to represent you during the appeal process.
- We will write to you to let you know that we received your appeal.
- You can give us evidence in person or in writing that supports or relates to your appeal.
- You can look at or get copies of your medical record and other documents that are important to your appeal, for free, any time before our decision deadline.
- We will review your appeal.
- We will make our decision within 30 calendar days after we received your appeal.
- We will write to you to let you know our decision.

- The appeal process may last longer than 30 calendar days if you request an extension.

- The appeal process may last longer than 30 calendar days if we decide we need more information.
 - This extension will be in your best interest.

 - This extension lasts up to 14 calendar days.

 - We will let you know if we extend the process.

- For Medi-Cal clients: Our written decision to you will include information about your right to file for a State Fair Hearing, after you have finished our one level of appeal and are still unhappy with our decision.
 - It will include information about how to file for a hearing.

 - It will include information about how you may keep your current services while you are waiting for the hearing, in some situations.

Expedited Appeal Process (regarding ABDs)

You can file an expedited appeal to request a faster review of an ABD that you do not agree with.

Expedited appeals are considered necessary ONLY if using the standard appeal process could jeopardize your life, health, or ability to achieve, keep, or regain your maximum life functions.

- You must file an expedited appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of the ABD that you want to appeal.
- You can file an expedited appeal either orally or in writing.
- You may authorize another person, including your provider, to represent you during the appeal process.
- We will write to you to let you know that we received your request for an expedited appeal.
- We will review your request for an expedited appeal.
- If we deny your request for an expedited appeal, we will change the expedited appeal into a standard appeal. It will follow the standard appeal process.

- We will make reasonable efforts to let you know as soon as possible if we deny your request for an expedited appeal.
 - We will send you a written notice within two (2) calendar days of the date that we received your request.
- If we agree with your request for an expedited appeal, we will let you know orally, in person or over the phone.
- You can give us evidence in person or in writing that supports or relates to your expedited appeal.
- You can look at or get copies of your medical record and other documents that are important to your expedited appeal, for free, any time before our decision deadline.
 - Please be aware that because the expedited appeal is a fast process, there is limited time to present your evidence or access your records.
- We will review your expedited appeal.
- We will notify you orally of our decision as soon as possible.
- We will send a written notice to you explaining our decision no later than 72 hours after we received your expedited appeal.

- The expedited appeal process may last longer than 72 hours if you request an extension.

- The expedited appeal process may last longer than 72 hours if we decide that we need more information.
 - This extension will be in your best interest.

 - This extension lasts up to 14 calendar days.

 - We will let you know if we extend the process.

- For Medi-Cal clients: Our written decision to you will include information about your right to file for a State Fair Hearing after you have finished our one level of appeal and are still unhappy with our decision.
 - It will include information about how to file for a hearing.

 - It will include information about how you may keep your current services while you are waiting for the hearing, in some situations.

How do I file a grievance or an appeal?

The Grievance and Appeal forms are located in our clinic lobbies and at the wellness centers.

Self-addressed envelopes are included with the forms, if you want to send a grievance or appeal by mail.

Please ask LCBH staff if you do not see the forms and envelopes.

What if I need help with the process?

At any time during the problem resolution process, you may ask a staff person to help you.

You have a right to authorize another person or your legal representative to act on your behalf.

You can ask the county Patient's' Rights Advocate for help at (530) 251-8322.

You can call the State Ombudsman Service for help at

1-888-452-8609; or email them at
MMCDOmbudsmanOffice@dhcs.ca.gov

Confidentiality and Non-Discrimination

We ensure that your grievance and/or appeal is kept confidential.

It will only be discussed with people who are directly involved in the matter.

You will not be discriminated against or penalized for filing a grievance and/or appeal.

Language Assistance and Alternate Formats

We have English-speaking and Spanish-speaking staff available during normal office hours.

We utilize a Language Line for all other languages.

If you are hearing or speech impaired and use TTY, please call 711 for assistance.

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

What is the Friendship Line?

For older adults, please call the Friendship Line at 1-800-971-0016

Institute on Aging's 24-hour toll-free Friendship Line is the only accredited crisis line in the country for people aged 60 years and older, and adults living with disabilities. We also make on-going outreach calls to lonely older adults. While there are other organizations that respond to the needs of people who may be contemplating suicide, none provides the type of services that IOA's Friendship Line offers to respond to the public health problem of suicide among the elderly. Knowing that older people do not contact traditional suicide prevention centers on a regular basis even if they are considering suicide, we created the only program nationwide that reaches out to lonely, depressed, isolated, frail and/or suicidal older adults. Our trained volunteers specialize in offering a caring ear and having a friendly conversation with depressed older adults.
